

You're invited!

To the first conference co-hosted by
The Ohio ESC Association and
The Management Council (OECN)

Connect & Collaborate

September 11-12, 2017

Crowne Plaza Columbus North - Worthington

6500 Doubletree Ave, Columbus, Ohio

You're invited!

Connect & Collaborate

A Conference Co-hosted by

The Ohio ESC Association and The Management Council (OECN)

September 11-12, 2017

Crowne Plaza Columbus North - Worthington

6500 Doubletree Ave, Columbus, Ohio

Who Should Attend

The Connect & Collaborate conference is developed for all of Ohio's ESC & ITC members, superintendents, treasurers, directors, board members and other PreK-12 support professionals. Receive a discount when you bring a team of four.

Call for Presentations

Presentation proposals are welcome on topics related to Ohio's PreK-12 education, technology, operations, partnerships, instruction, and professional development.

Important Dates

July 10, 2017 Submission of presentation proposal

August 21, 2017 Housing block closes

August 24, 2017 Submission of registration

August 28, 2017 Submission of exhibitor and/or sponsorship application

September 11-12, 2017 Conference

Keynote Speakers

Mark Nelson, Executive Director, Computer Science Teachers Association

Developed and delivered 30+ articles and 1000+ hours of education on a range of topics that include innovation and emerging technology management, data analytics, IT leadership and strategy, and select edtech and learning technologies.

Dr. Donald Marinelli, Edutainment Wizard and Creative Conjuror

Co-founded the world-rekknowned Carnegie Mellon Entertainment Technology Center (ETC) with late computer science professor Randy Pausch and was a tenured Professor of Drama and Arts Management at Carnegie Mellon University.

Eric Sheninger, Senior Fellow & Thought Leader on Digital Leadership

Lead the New Milford High School to global recognition as a model for innovative practices by the successful implementation of sustainable change initiatives that radically transformed the learning culture while increasing achievement.

